

MEXICAN REBELS ARE GETTING BOLDER

Attack Large City and
Expect to Occupy
It Today.

MADERO FOR THE LINE

Wishes to Be Where
Washington Must
Notice Him.

ZACATECAS, Mexico, April 10.—A large force of rebels made a sudden attack upon this city yesterday morning and continued the fight throughout the day, with such success that it is feared that the city must fall unless strong reinforcements are sent at once. The garrison, although outnumbered, is putting up a splendid defense, realizing the importance of holding out if possible and preventing the capture of a city as important as this one.

Madero Off for Border.
CHIHUAHUA, Mexico, April 10.—It is believed here that the objective point of General Madero is Juarez, on the boundary line. It is known that the revolutionary leader is anxious to hold one of the border cities, as something that will secure for the revolution a recognition of belligerency from the United States.

At the head of three thousand men, Madero left this neighborhood on Saturday, headed for Casas Grandes. The railroad between Casas Grandes and El Paso is open, while that between this city and the north is cut in many places. The plan of the rebel general, as now believed, is to reach the railroad and entrain his whole force for an attack upon Juarez.

Zacatecas, from which one of the dispatches above is dated, is a city of thirty-five thousand inhabitants, the capital of the State of Zacatecas, and one of the important points of central Mexico. It is four hundred miles south of Chihuahua and within three hundred miles of the City of Mexico. It is by far the largest place so far attacked by the insurgents and its distance from Madero's headquarters shows to what an extent the revolution is spreading. The attack upon this city, and the rebel success at Avila, about sixty miles south of the City of Mexico, are significant signs of the growth of the Madero cause.

Chihuahua, the city named as the objective point in Madero's personal campaign, is a town of eight thousand across the Rio Grande from the city of El Paso, Texas. Should Madero gain the city it will bring him into direct communication with the American customs officials and with the army officers stationed at El Paso. It would necessitate the American officials recognizing the custom officers he would nominate and would bring his cause closer to official recognition by Washington.

LONDON HEARS OF GENERAL UPRISING IN CANTON CITY

LONDON, April 10.—News was received here yesterday of a general uprising in Canton, aimed against the Manchus, but no direct confirmation of the report is obtainable. The story that comes is to the effect that the populace has risen and that the Chinese general in command of the government troops has been surrounded, with his troops besieged in their barracks. No news is to be had concerning the fate of the foreigners in the city, but it is thought that the fighting has been confined to the Chinese.

FIAT CAR MAKES WORLD'S RECORD

LOS ANGELES, April 10.—The Fiat car won the twenty-four-hour automobile race, concluded yesterday. The machine covered fourteen hundred and ninety-one miles on the track, establishing a new world's record.
